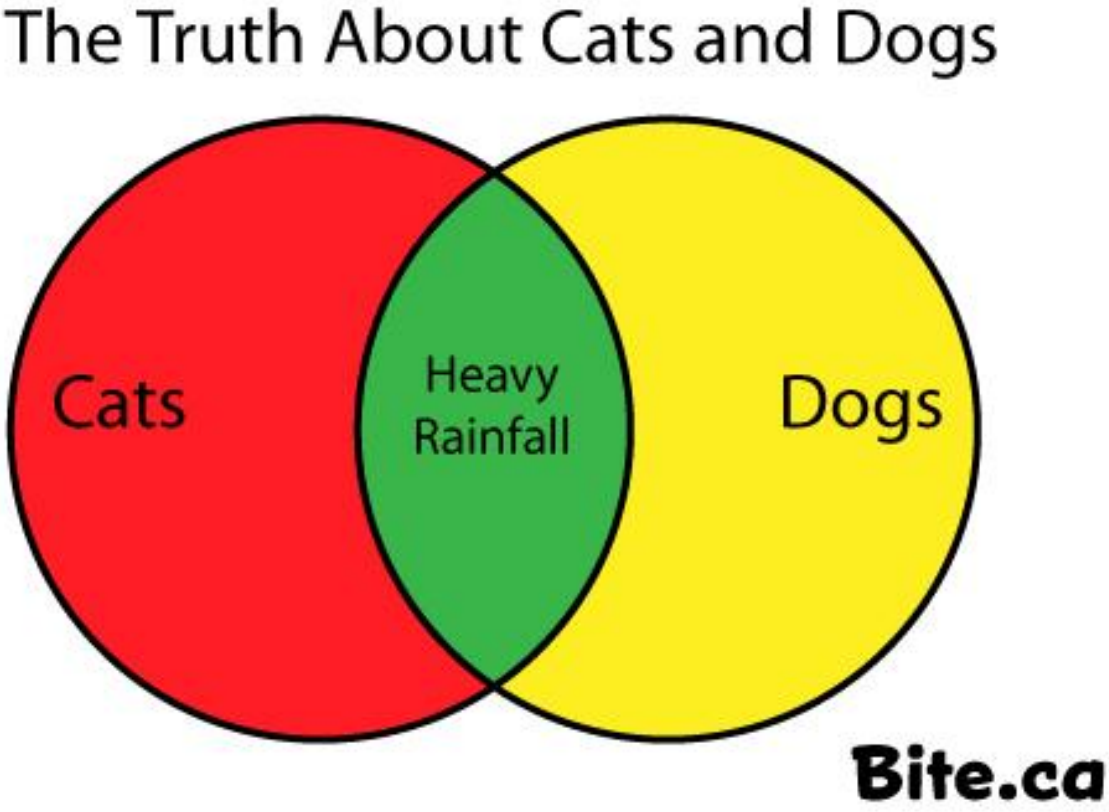
A Williams College Hour Bonus:



Presented by "Must Capture Moose And Squirrel!"
January 11-12, 2013

You are holding in your hot little hands (or hot little computer screen) The Truth about Cats and Dogs hour bonus. For this first section, simply identify the breed pictured below.

Note: These are all AKC recognized breeds. There are no "boutique" cross-breeds (e.g. Labradoodle) included.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

11.
12.
13.
14.
15.

16.
17.
18.
19.

20.
21.
22.
23.
24.

25.
26.
27.

28.  29.  30.  31.  32.

33.  34.  35.  37.  38.

39.  40.

41.  42.  43.  44.  45.  46.

 47.  48.

49.  50.  51.  52.  53.

54.

Now for the cats: Again, Identify the breed pictured.

55.

56.

57.

58.

59.

60.

61.

62.

63.

64.
Finally, some general cat/dog questions:

65. Which dog breed is considered the tallest?

66. We won't insult you by asking you what breed Snoopy is. But we will ask you where Snoopy, and his brothers and sisters, were born.

67. What is the compound in chocolate that can be lethal to dogs as well as other pets?

68. What dog breed is nicknamed "The American Gentleman"?

69 – 71. There are three major dog shows in the U.S. Name them.

72. What literary name is given to cats with the "polydactyl" mutation that causes them to have extra toes?

73. On The Ren and Stimpy Show, the duo go to a dog show where it is revealed that Ren is what specific type of Chihuahua?

74. What is almost always true of cats with either tortoiseshell or calico coloring?

75. What is true of 60-80% of cats with white fur and at least one blue eye?